Press Release

Thalhofer Preis 2011 – The Thalhofer Competition 2011
The Company Ursula Maier Werkstätten GmbH wins First price in this year's competition.

The Association of Joinary and Carpenters Baden Württemberg „Fachverband Schreinerhandwerk Baden-Württemberg" and the company Georg Thalhofer OHG have asked for entries amongts joineries in Baden Württemberg.

The title was „Leuchtturmprojekte" – aoutstanding projects in the field of the joinery handicraft and searched for aoutstanding, innovative projects, with which handicraft companies could reinvent themselves and start a new thinking. Projects, similar to a Leuchttum, a lighthouse, that show new ways of handling handicraft.

The ‚Sarah Maier collection' as trademark of our joinery, has won the first prize of that competition. Our joinery, the Ursula Maier Werkstätten, is internationally well known. It has won the first price in categories „company with over 10 employees".

Sarah Maier, who is owner and designer of the Sarah Maier collection, was at the ceremony at September, 24th in Ellwangen/Germany, to get the price that was worth 2.000.-.
The most known product of the trademark ‚Sarah Maier collection' is the Laptop Tower LT FP1, LT FP2, LT young und LT country. A multifunctional working desk on castors.
